IV OUR LEARNINGS

IV. OUR LEARNINGS…

1. Importance to connect leadership development to institutional strategies.
2. Collaboration between institutions relays on personal relations.
3. Meeting your partners face to face increases chances of successful collaboration.
4. There is significant learning just from interaction of people from different cultural backgrounds.
5. It's important to spread the voice of successful collaboration efforts; inside your institution can bring you support and resources and outside opens new possibilities of collaboration.
