Ivy Tech Community College and the ECLEE Move 2 Work Program

Crossing cultures for employment mobility

CHANGING LIVES MAKING INDIANA GREAT

Relationship

Ivy Tech Community College in Fort Wayne, IN part of the Ivy Tech Community College network of 30 campuses (110,000 students) and 11, 547 students in Fort Wayne

ECLEE in Lille, France

the European Center for Leadership and Entrepreneurship Education is part of the University of Lille and the Ministry of Employment in Tourcoing, France

Quality Programming

- Language Immersion
  - Business English
  - Conversational English
- Cultural Immersion
  - Industry tours
  - Planned classroom sharing
  - Independent living
- Job Shadowing
  - 4 weeks of meaningful work in a local business

Results

- Upon return to home country
  - Marketing advantage
  - International experience
  - Global contacts
  - Maturity and self-sufficiency
  - Improve economy of home country by bringing entrepreneurship and potential business contacts

Best Practices

- Screen participants well
- Train the local businesses in job shadowing and "real work"
- Require independent living
- Structure classroom sharing through clicker technology and interactive surveys
- Use trending Business texts
- Understand entrepreneurship and encourage risk-taking

Future Endeavors

- China: Developing exchanges within aviation, culinary, CNS machining fields
- France: Continuing development of business placement and job shadows
- Mexico: Faculty exchanges beginning
- ??

Contact

- Martha Martin, Coordinator Global Programs, Ivy Tech Community College (Fort Wayne, IN)
  - mmartin223@ivytech.edu
  - 260-255-6861
- Mahamouda Salouhou, Executive Director, ECLEE (Lille, France)
  - msalouhou@gmail.com
  - 33-320-06-1730

For more information

- Documentary: http://www.allvilos.com/Test/M2W3/M2W3.htm
- ECLEE: http://www.eclee.eu/mobilite-professionnelle/move2work/move-2-work.html
- Ivy Tech Community College: www.ivytech.edu
- Vimeo: Move 2 Work
- Facebook: Move 2 Work USA
- Birth 2 Work: www.birth2work.org